- WorkTime is designed for unobtrusive employee monitoring. It does not support any spying functionality that might infringe on the employees privacy.
- WorkTime shows the overall productivity level at a glance. The primary goal is to provide the idea of the productivity level within the company. This includes: employees' active/idle times, work related/personal computer usage, Internet for personal needs/Internet for work, attendance/login/logout times etc. WorkTime highlights any weak points: Internet personal usage (Social Networking, News, Sports etc.), Overtimes/Insufficient working time, Idle time, Wasted time, Rarely used software/computers etc.
- WorkTime is designed to monitor sites with 15,000+ employees/computers and to process large volumes of information using minimum of the system resources at the same time. WorkTime is field tested. Our customers with 15,000+ computers use it successfully for years.
- WorkTime is highly reliable as it has multi-level data protection design that insures data safety in the case of any network or hardware failure.
- WorkTime offers 60+ well categorized customizable reports that can be exported to HTML (same look as on the screen) or CSV formats. Reports allow automatic scheduling.
- All monitoring results are stored strictly on your computers/servers. No Internet connection is required to use WorkTime.
- We offer really competitive prices and licensing conditions. No recurring fees (one-time fee), the license does not expire.
- We offer 30 days fully functional evaluation copy, unlimited users/computers. The evaluation copy has the only limitation - it can be used for 30 days.
